

Tarrant County College Northeast Campus Texas Two-Year College All-State Participants

Sarah Collier is a third-year music student at Tarrant County College Northeast. While at Haltom High School she was a four-year choir member and multiple-year All-Region Choir member, graduating in 2011. She is a second-year TCC NE Chamber Singer and Collegiate Chorale member and a first-time Community Chorus member, as well as former vice president and current president of the Encore Music Club and is studying voice with Stan Paschal. Sarah was a part of both the 2013 and 2014 Texas Two-Year College All-State Choirs and performed the role of Mrs. Gobineau in the TCC NE Opera Workshop production of Menotti's The Medium. She has been accepted to The University of Texas Arlington, Texas Woman's University and Sam Houston State University and will be transferring in the fall to one of the three to complete her first degree in Music Education.

Vanessa Hatcher, a sophomore at Tarrant County College Northeast, graduated from Richland High School in 2012. She plans to major in Broadcast Journalism at the University of North Texas. A choir member "for as long as she can remember," Vanessa was a part of the All-District Choir during her senior year in high school. Though she is not a music major, Vanessa plans to keep on singing and being involved with music.

Aaron Kellner is a sophomore at Tarrant County College Northeast, majoring in Music Education. Aaron currently performs in the Opera Workshop, Chamber Singers and Collegiate Chorale campus groups. This is Aaron's second consecutive year to represent the TCC Choir Department as a member of the Texas Two-Year College All-State Choir. Aaron hopes to achieve an Associate Arts Degree in Music Education and then transfer to the University of North Texas, Baylor or Texas Christian University to further his education in music. Aaron graduated from Euless Trinity High School in 2012 and had the honor of performing in the All-Region Choir four times.

Hope Myers is a musician from Keller, specializing in the instruction of voice, electric bass, guitar and beginner piano. Currently majoring in music at Tarrant County College Northeast, Hope participates in Chamber Singers, as well as Collegiate Chorale. Classically trained in voice under the instruction of Joe Davisson, she has earned placements in the top ensembles of Central High School, Oklahoma State University and Tarrant County College. Her 10 years of performance experience spans numerous genres including opera, rock, blues, alternative and worship settings with the Regal Opera Company, Voices of Central show choir and competitions such as National Association of Teachers of Singing (NATS), All-State and University Interscholastic League (UIL) Solo and Ensemble.
