SO	11/19-11/21/15	Thursday through Saturday, 7:30 p.m.	Joe B. Rushing Center for the Performing Arts	Drama	The Nosemaker's Apprentice: Chronicles of a Medieval Plastic Surgeon	The hero of this tale is Gavin, a young orphan rescued from a dismal existence in the Ivanhoe Workhouse for Criminally Impoverished Boys when he is apprenticed with the local Nosemaker, and who eventually becomes one of the finest surgeons in Vienna, cradle of quack medicine. Using innovative skin grafting techniques and cutting edge alchemy, Gavin and his master seek only to do the Work of the Almighty by restoring small appendages lost to rat bites, dueling, and syphilis. But when they are unable to help a powerful and mutilated knight recently returned from the crusades, they find their feet over the fire...literally.	TCC Students, Faculty and Staff: Free Non-TCC Students and Senior Citizens: $3 General Public: $6	Lindy Benton-Muller, Director of Theatre, 817-515-4717, melinda.benton@tccd.edu
